

Post Doc (all fields), Department of Economics, Heidelberg University

The Department of Economics at Heidelberg University is seeking to fill a Post-Doc position (TV-L E13, 100%) starting September 1st, 2021 or at the earliest possible convenience.

Qualified applicants working in any research area are encouraged to apply. The Department is especially interested in researchers working in one of our core areas. These include Behavioral and Experimental Economics, Environmental Economics, Development Economics, Financial Econometrics, Macroeconomics, and Political Economics. For information on the faculty and their research interests, please visit https://www.uni-heidelberg.de/fakultaeten/wiso/awi/professuren/index_en.html

The postdoctoral fellow will have the opportunity to conduct collaborative and independent research. He or she is also expected to interact actively with other researchers at the Department of Economics. Financial support for research and travel will be provided.

The job comes with a teaching obligation of 4x45 minutes per week during term time. Teaching may be done in English or German. The position is available for 6 years, with a 2 year probationary period. For information on the subsequent placement of prior Post Docs, see

<https://www.uni-heidelberg.de/fakultaeten/wiso/awi/jobmarket/postdoccareers.html>

Applicants should hold a Ph.D. in Economics no older than four years. German language skills are not a requirement.

Applicants should send a letter of interest, their CV (including: list of publications, classes taught, names of two references), a one-page research statement, and two research papers to the address below. All application materials should be consolidated into a single pdf file.

Email for applications: fiwi@uni-heidelberg.de

Deadline for applications: May 21st 2021