

Call for Papers

German Development Economics Conference (GDE)

Annual International Conference of the German Economic Association
Research Group on Development Economics
Hosted by the University of Hohenheim

9-10 June 2022
Stuttgart-Hohenheim, Germany

Keynote Speakers

Christopher B. Barrett (Cornell University)

Christopher Udry (Northwestern University)

The annual conference brings together international scholars and researchers of development economics and neighboring fields. Plenary sessions with keynote speakers, parallel sessions with contributed papers, and poster sessions will reflect the current state of research in development economics and provide a forum for exchange for researchers and practitioners. The conference is planned as a physical meeting, yet if the pandemic situation does not allow such a meeting, the organizers may switch to a fully or partially online format. If the meeting is held physically, participants will need a proof of vaccination or recovery or a negative test result.

Interested contributors are invited to fill a submission form on www.entwicklungsoekonomischer-ausschuss.de and upload their full paper before February 15th 2022 (the call opens November 15th 2021). Acceptance notes with detailed information will be sent by early April 2022. The conference will start in the afternoon of June 9, 2022. There will be a conference fee of Euro 50.

Local organizers: Regina Birner and Manfred Zeller (University of Hohenheim).

Funding for this event from the KfW – Development Bank is gratefully acknowledged.

Selection Committee:

Axel Dreher (Heidelberg University), Andreas Fuchs (University of Göttingen), Michael Grimm (University of Passau), Isabel Günther (ETH Zürich), Krisztina Kis-Katos (University of Göttingen) and Matthias Schündeln (Goethe University Frankfurt).
