This year's workshop will be organized by Isabel Günther and the ETH Zürich Development Economics Group and takes place on September 28 and 29 2023 at ETH in Zurich, Switzerland.

Objectives of the Doctoral Workshop:

- Enhance the quality of ongoing research by providing valuable feedback.
- Offer advice on the preparation of a refereed journal article.
- Facilitate academic discussions among like-minded students from different universities, fostering exchange and collaboration.
- Establish an informal network of young scholars in the field of development economics.

The workshop is open to doctoral students registered in the field of development economics who are working together with a member of the Verein für Socialpolitik - Standing field committee of Development Economics.

Submission of full papers is required. Preference will be given to students whose supervisor is committed to attending the workshop and is limited to ten doctoral students. Participants are responsible for organizing and funding their own travel and accommodation arrangements.

Submission Deadline: June 30, 2023

Acceptance Notification: July 30, 2023

Please submit your paper, along with a short letter of support from your supervisor, to dario.meili@nadel.ethz.ch.

We look forward to welcoming you in Zurich.
